

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

JONATHAN FEINBERG JOINS MASON MORSE IN ASPEN, COLORADO

Mason Morse Real Estate announced the addition of Jonathan Feinberg to the Mason Morse Aspen office.

Jonathan joins us from Coates Reid & Waldron. He has seen great success since entering real estate in 2004, which is a function of his professionalism, dedication and intensity toward helping buyers and sellers in this market.

Jonathan has been in the top 100 in production and has sold over $79 million since 2004. He is well-known in this community, and was the former owner of Oxbow Outfitters.

“Jonathan comes from the Coates Reid & Waldron with great enthusiasm and potential,” said Bob Starodoj, President of Mason Morse Real Estate. “He is following in the footsteps of Brian Hazen and Bob Ritchie and we predict he will be an equally successful broker.” Starodoj adds, “Jonathan rounds out the CRW team that transitioned to Mason Morse Real.”

Jonathan Feinberg, Broker Associate of Mason Morse Real Estate can be reached at 970.379.3405.

In 2008, Mason Morse completed more transactions in the Roaring Fork Valley than any other real estate company. Mason Morse is number one in sales transactions, and currently represents over $900 million in listings, including our Ranch division. Mason Morse Real Estate is an established leader in real estate in the Roaring Fork Valley. Established in 1961 with over 70 sales professionals, Mason Morse has five offices from Aspen to Glenwood, including the Ranch Company recognized as one of the leading ranch real estate sales teams.
